U.S. Environmental Protection Agency, Region 7
Environmental Roundtable for St. Louis, Missouri Stakeholders
March 19, 2012

The U.S. Environmental Protection Agency, Region 7, would like to invite you to an Environmental Roundtable with Mathy Stanislaus, EPA Assistant Administrator for the Office of Solid Waste and Emergency Response (OSWER) in Washington, D.C. Mr. Stanislaus is visiting EPA Region 7 to attend an Underground Storage Tanks Conference in St. Louis, Missouri. However, while he is in the region, he is hosting several Environmental Roundtables with citizens, business leaders, universities and other local, state and federal organizations.

As Assistant Administrator for OSWER, Mr. Stanislaus is responsible for EPA's programs on hazardous and solid waste management, hazardous waste cleanup including Resource Conservation Recovery Act corrective action, Superfund and federal facilities cleanup and redevelopment, Brownfields, oil spill prevention and response, chemical accident prevention and preparedness, underground storage tanks, and emergency response.

WHO: EPA Assistant Administrator Mathy Stanislaus

WHAT: Environmental Roundtable

WHEN: Monday, March 19, 2012
7:00 - 8:00 p.m.

WHERE: St. Louis University Busch Student Center
20 North Grand, Conference Room 170
St. Louis, Missouri

The Roundtable will provide a venue for the Assistant Administrator to meet and greet St. Louis, Missouri stakeholders and residents, and will create a forum for an environmental conversation for all participants.
